WILMINGTON BOARDING SCHOOL
FOR BOYS.—This institution is situated in one of the healthiest parts of the city of Wilmington, curriely beyond the settled pertions of the town. The uniform healthfulness of the location may be nutried from the fact that, since the establishment of the school, about twenty-eight years, very few cases of serious indisposition have occurred among the pupils, and not a single death either here, or from diseases contracted while here.

The course of instruction includes, bosides the ordinary English branches, Natural Philosophy, Chealatry, Physiology, History, Rhetoric, the various branches of Mathematics, and the Lalin, Greek, and French Languages. Particular attention is paid to the higher Mathematics and their application to Machanics and Engineering; the latter and Surveying are taught practically by full operations, with the use of appropriate instruments. Lectures on Natural Philosophy and Chemistry in which all the important principles are illustrated by experiments, are regularly delivered before the students.

As the object is to make the instruction as thorough and practical as possible, no expense has been spared in providing audiable apparatus. It is believed that, in this respect, the Institution will compare favorably with any similar one in the country. A carefully selected library, of more than one thousand volumes, containing works on the various branches of Literature and Science, furnishes ample reading matter; while a Laboratory, fully supplied with apparatus and tests, contains all that is necessary for practical instruction in Chemical Manipulation.

The school year commenced on the third Second day (Monday) of the Ninth mouth (Septemberry, and is divided into four quarters of eleven weeks each leaving a vacation of two mouths, from about the middle of the Seventh month (July).

THE TESTIMONY OF ONE OF OUR LAWYERS.

MORE HOME EVIDENCE

THE TESTIMONY OF ONE OF OUR LAWYERS.—

Mr. Jas. L. Hamilton.—Dear Sm: Although the number and respectability of the testimonials of which you are already in possession, as to the efficacy of your Medicine, "THE GREAT VA. REMEDY," in the discusses which it is designed to cure, are sufficient, in my opinion, to establish its reputation, and secure for it such patronage as will adequately reward you for the discovery of so inestimable a Medicine—yot the great benefit which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have derived from its use, and the salutary effects which I have of it, this formal acknowledgment of its sanitary virtues. My own case was Dyspepeia of long duration, and very aggravated in its character, manifested by an almost total destruction of the digestive functions, great debility, nervousness, emaciation, and impaired appetite, with pain, and a burning sensation in the left side of the chest, palpitation of the heart, vertige and congestion in the head, and many other symptoms indicative of the worst type of the disease, by the use of three or four bottles of your preparation, been entirely relieved. The cases of my friends, in which your Medicine was taken, were Dyspusia, Chronic Headache, and Sore Throat, in all of which it proved efficacious, after the trial of a vast number of other remedies without benefit. Your medicine is as pleasant to the taste as a certikal, and in my experience corrects all derangement of the stomach, restores the wasted or enfeebled energies of the digestive organs, and imparts strength and remimation to the whole system.

Very respectfully, yours, &c.,

J. HOWARD GRIPFITH,

Mesers. T. & J. W. Johnson:
Gentlemen—In reply to your letter, I can with great sincerity say, that I entertain a very high opinion of the recent Exchequer Reports. In my judgment they are not excelled by any cotemporaneous Reports, in learning, ability, or general utility and interest. The cases decided are discussed with great care, and expounded with uncommon force. I scarcely know of any volumes which I deem of more importance or value for a Professional Library.

JOSEPH STORY.

Camerice, January 25, 1845.

Gentlemen: Your letter of the 24th has been received, in which you ask my opinion as to the value of the English Exchequer Reports, from Price downwards to this time, to an American Lawyer, and as to the expediency of reprinting them in this country. Of the high value of these Reports, both on the Pleas and Equity sides of the Court, I have not the least doubt—the decisions of this Court for the last fifteen or twenty years, both at Equity and in Common Law, being entitled to equal respect with any others in England. I should think an American Lawyer's Library essentially incomplete without them.

I am, gentlemen, very respectfully yours,

SIMON GREENLEAF.

Ice Creams, Water Ices, &c.—Patented September 19, 1848.

THE distinguising merits of this Apparatus are—
1st. The astonishing rapidity of the process, surpassing belief—hence the name.
2d. The Cream during the progress of freezing becomes charged with atmospheric air, by which it nearly doubles in bulk, and obtains that peculiar smoothness, lightness, and delicacy of flavor, for which the Ice Cream of our best Confectioners is so highly prized.
3d. It does not require a tenth part of the labor that the common Freezer does.
4th. It does its work better, producing a better article, in every respect, than by any other mode.
5th. There is a considerable saving in ice, as the tub needs no replemishing during the operation.
The annexed testimonial from the Proprietor of the Eutaw House will put to rest all doubt.
"Having witnessed the process of freezing Ice Cream in Austin's Magic Freezer, two quarts of Cream having been frozen in the incredible short time of six minutes, I cheerfully recommend it to the public."

H. F. JACKSON,
Eutaw House, Baltimore, May 16, 1848.

BLACKWOOD'S MAGAZINE

BRITISH QUARTERLY REVIEWS WING to the lats revolutions and counter-revolutions among the maxions of Europe, which have followed each other in such quick succession; and of which "the end is not yet." the leading periodicals of Great Britain have become invested with a degree of intenses hitherto unknown. They occupy a middle ground between the hasty, disjointed, and necessarily imperfect records of the newspapers, and the elaborate and ponderous treaties to be furnished by the listorian at a future day. Whoever reads these periodicals obtains a correct and connected account of all the important political events of the Old World, as they occur, and learns the various conclusions drawn from them by the leading spirits of the age. The American publishers therefore deem it proper to call renewed attention to the works they publish, and the very low prices at which they are offered to subscribers. The at which they are observed to subscribe is their let-trie:

THE EDINUTED REVIEW,
THE NORTH BRITISH REVIEW,

In these periodicals are contained the views, moderately though clearly and firmly expressed, of the three greates parties in England—Tory, Whig, and Radical; "Black wood" and the "London Quarterly" are Tory, the "Edit burgh Review" Whig, and the "Westimister Review" Liberal. The "North British Review" over its establish ment to the last great ecclesiastical movement in Scotland and is not ultra in its views on any one of the grand departments of human knowledge. It has originally edited partments of human knowledge, it has originally edited by his son-in-law, Dr. Hanna, associated with Sir David Brewster. Its literary character is of the very higher order. The "Swestminster," though reprinted under the title only, is published in England under the title of the "Foreign Quarterly and Westminster," it being in factuation of the two Reviews formerly published and reprinted under the state of the state of nemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

ENLARGED AND IMPROVED, compiled chiefly from the Magnum Totius Latinitatis Lexicon at Facciolati and Forcellini, and the German works of Scheller and Lugnemann, embracing, also, the classical distinctions of words, and the Etymological Index from Freund's Lexicon.

The present edition of this standard and favorite Latin Lexicon has been much improved by the transfer to its columns of the classical distinctions of Latin words, as given in the Lexicon of Dr. Wm. Freund, of Germany, and translated by Riddle. The classical degree of each word is indicated by a figure; for example, a word without a figure is fully classical and Ciceronian; with the figures 1, 2, and 3, words are classical only in the first, second, &c., degrees; and this distinction the student perceives at a glance. The Etymological Index, also from Freund's Lexicon, has been incorporated into the present edition of Leverett, and will be found a valuable acquisition. While transferring these notes and marks, catalogues were carefully kept of the words found in easil-Lexicon, which were not found in the other. On comparing these catalogues, it was found that the value and importance of the additional words found in Leverett, so far as a knowledge of the Latin language is concerned, very far exceeds that of those found in Riddle's Freund. The extensive use of Leverett's Lexicon in all parts of the country, and the preference which has been universally given to it over all similar works, render its recommendation superfluous; but attention to this new edition is predecessors of the distinguished favor which the work has hitherto received.

I am also gratified at the decidedly moral and religious influence which your books will exert, and cannot but hope that they will do much to counteract the effects of that light and immoral literature which deluges the land, and, like the frogs of Egypt, comes up even to the kneading troughs of our kitchens. May you live long to follow your plans.
